*"When you see the priests carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD your God, follow them. Since you have never traveled this way before, they will guide you." Then Joshua told the people, "Purify yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do great wonders among you."
- Joshua 3:3-4a,5 (New Living Translation)*

Happy 2009!! I love the beginning of the New Year for a number of reasons, but one of my favorites is that we get to look back and reminisce about all the neat stuff that has happened to us in the last year. And for me and Sarah, that's a lot of reminiscing. And it's all changed so fast that I have often had to stop for a few minutes just to catch my breath. In the immortal words of Jerry Garcia, "Lately it occurs to me what a long, strange trip it's been."

The problem with looking back, however, is that it often prevents us from looking forward. The great thing about old friends, old memories, old haunts, and old habits is that comfortable feeling we get. All these old things just feel good and seem to "fit right." They give you "warm fuzzies" that all of us love to get. Looking back is fun. But moving forward requires us to look forward. Looking ahead may or may not be fun, but it's vitally important to growing physically, mentally, and spiritually. If we all drove our cars by looking in the rear view mirror the whole time, we wouldn't get very far. Life is all about moving forward, and the Christian faith is all about moving forward with the help of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As much as we love our current life, what we usually forget about when we reminisce is that every old friend was once a complete stranger. Every accomplishment started out as just a dream. Every change started as just a thought. Through prayer, perseverance, and perspiration, we can turn our vision of the future into our reality.

Have you started looking forward into this year? I have a lot of thoughts about 2009. I have visions for my life, my ministry, and my family for the next year. I want to grow my relationship with God through daily prayer and study. I want to deepen my commitment and dependence on the Holy Spirit by stepping out in faith. I want to grow disciples at RPUMC by following the recipe Jesus used on His twelve disciples. I want to model the importance of spiritual disciplines to healthy spirituality, and then teach others how to make them useful in their everyday life. I want my family to continue to walk in the way of the Lord, and I want to live out Joshua 24:15b, "As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." I want all of my children to love Jesus as much as I do, and I want to love Sarah better and deeper than I ever have in the past. Most of all I want to be part of what Richardson Park will become in the next 12 months. There is so much potential within our church that with some passion, some fire, some love, and lots of reliance on God, we can do amazing things.

So, what do you want to happen in the next year? What do you want God to do in your life, in your family, in your church, in your community, and in your world in the next 12 months? What are you willing to do to make it happen? Now is the time to start thinking about it, and better yet, to start praying about. The future is right in front of us. Don't let 2009 slip past without taking advantage of it . . . Carpe annum!

Blessing and Peace to you all and a Happy 2009,

MANY THANKS TO OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Chancel Bells

The handbell ensemble has 10 dedicated members who play our three-octave set. One of our members, Barbara Sayles, decided to retire from playing bells. Thank you Barbara for ringing Praise for many years!

Does someone you know play handbells, or would YOU like to learn? We rehearse every Thursday evening from 6:30 PM to 7:30 PM. We generally play handbells monthly and for special services like Easter. Music knowledge is helpful but not required.

Please contact Terri Weaver for more information.

Chancel Choir

We have voices in soprano, alto, tenor and bass ranges. We could use your voice, too. Rehearsals are on Thursday evenings starting at 7:30 PM. We hope to see you there!

Thank You

As your Music Director, I am grateful for a supportive Chancel Choir, Bell Ensemble and gifted musicians who volunteer their time and talents. Plus, I love playing the largest church pipe organ in DE for a warm and gracious congregation. I would like to thank you for your very generous Christmas gift. It is greatly appreciated.

Faithfully, Terri Weaver
